CASE # 17-1067

CASE # 17-1311 -3-

CASE # 17-1312

AFFIDAVIT

I Ricky Patterson, state the following is true -&- I am willing to testify to the following; as I am the petitioner in the forementioned cases.

Over the last month I've steadily been receiving waiver of service forms from all of the defendants in the fore mentioned CASES... However I'm not sure on how to proceed from this point; because as of date my original case was broken into three seperate cases -&- the motion I filed to consolidate has gone unanswered, along with my second motion for counsel.

While the second Motion for Counsel was a basic form I needed to only fill out, the Motion to consolidate was prepared for me by a "former" law clerk. Who is now telling me I need to amend my complaint -&- prepare for the defendants reply.

The problem is I don't have a clue how to proceed alone, -&- of course help from the "former" law clerk will cost me, funds I do not have. This is why I filed my claim with an attached forma paupis. Because I am unable to amend my complaint (As the ORIGINAL WAS DONE by A/LAW CLERK IN LAWRENCE C.C.) - of all the work I am told will be needed to bring my claims clearly to the court, I only know how to prepare an affidavit.

Thus I am unable to proceed further without assistance from counsel -&- the defendants will be able to proceed with their practice of physically retaliating against inmates - threatening inmates with sexual violence writing false tickets on inmates, refusing to answer grievances & refusing to investigate false charges on inmates who seek aid from the courts.

There is noway for me to defend this case or cases in three seperate court rooms, with three-or against three seperate defense attorneys. Therefore I'm wondering what is going on with the pre printed second motion for counsel. Please grant my request as the attorneys for the defendants are due to file their responses by Feb, 9-11, 2018...

Respectfully

Ricky Patterson

Dear Court Clerk,

Greetings over the last month I've steadily been receiving waivers of service forms from all of the defendants in the fore mentioned cases... However I'm not sure on how to proceed from this point, because as of date my original case was broken into three separate cases -& the motion I filed to consolidate has gone unanswered, along with my Second Motion for Counsel.

While the Second Motion for Counsel was a basic form I needed to only fill out, the Motion to Consolidate was prepared for me by former law clerk. Who is now telling me I need to ~~amend~~ my complaint -& prepare for the Defendants Reply. The problem is I don't have a clue how to proceed alone, -& of course help here will "cost" me funds I don't have, -& the law clerk's here at Hill C.C. don't know civil law.

I won't be able to proceed without help, so I'm writing today to find out what it is I ~~half~~ to do in order to get assistance, -& how long will it take for me to learn if the cases have been consolidated. Because as of date there are three case # three judges -& 2 or 3 attorneys against me, -& I don't have a clue. Please inform me how to proceed.

Respectfully

Ricky Patterson
